

Westfields Real Estate Company Profile

Westfields real estate was formed in 2012 in Accra Ghana, as a property consulting company. Westfield Real Estate specializes in both residential and commercial properties in Accra's prime areas.

Westfields Real Estate is an established and highly regarded estate agency with an experienced team of professionals dedicated to achieving the highest possible customer service standards.

With Properties throughout the prime areas of Accra, we combine traditional values with modern technology and sophisticated marketing techniques to provide outstanding service whether you are a Landlord, Vendor, Tenant or Purchaser.

The managing director of Westfields Real Estate is Eunice Ofori. She has a BA Business Management with Human Resources. She set up Westfields Real Estate after relocating back home to Ghana from the U.K in 2012.

Eunice has worked for the Home Office, Financial Services Authority (FSA) and the Japanese Investment Bank. She is a highly motivated and results oriented individual who has a passion for helping people.

'Our clients recognize and trust the brand Westfields Real Estate, which is backed by our local knowledge of the property market in Accra.

We offer superior value in the service we provide, always willing to go the extra mile to satisfy our clients' needs.'

Joining the African Partner Pool has opened up a new world of opportunities for her company and she is confident it will grow from strength to strength.
